15.févr.06	11.00-12.30h	EdC: um agir econômico de comunhão	320	No debate atual – pró ou contra os mercados – a EdC está seguindo uma trajetória própria, que coloca a vida e não as ideologias em primeiro plano, em diálogo com as demais experiências existentes. Focolares	Informal	9	209
15.févr.06	11.00-12.30h	Luta pela terra e espiritualidade	323	A experiência dos assentamentos na luta pela terra a partir da fé cristã. A experiência de famílias evangélicas luteranas na luta por terra ajudou a mudar a sua visão de como viver a fé no dia-a-dia.	Informal	4	Salão de Atos
15.févr.06	11.00-12.30h	New models of Religious and Cultural Formation	10	Traditional religious and cultural formation throughout the world is intended to initiate young people into their home culture. The new challenges of growing multiculturalism and of global citizenship put forward the tasks of teaching them to be tolerant, inclusive, and open to the diversity of faiths and traditions. How are these two intentions to be balanced in public and church education? This workshop's goal to develop and use open, ecumenical, interconfessional, dialogical forms of religious education is quite new for both post-communist countries of Europe and Latin America.	Informal	50	314
15.févr.06	11.00-12.30h	Theology, Human Rights and Justice in the Caribbean	19	Human rights and social justice are key elements of any society. This workshop will highlight cultural approaches to human rights and social justice. It will seek to address human rights in the Caribbean in the following ways: the exploration of the subject through the medium of poetry; exploration through the art form of calypso; and comments on the evolution of steel-band movement from the backyard to the concert hall, and finally to the cathedral.	Informal	50	905
15.févr.06	11.00-12.30h	Destination South Asia - Envisioning a Transcending Identity	16	Within the context of South Asia this workshop will initiate a discussion on identity formation from a micro perspective amidst overwhelming globalization. It will include a discussion on creating space in one's journey of faith without fighting for space. It will draw attention to the notion of security against the dread of losing one's identity, and will highlight the interlinkages between peace, security and identity.	Informal	50	301

15.févr.06	11.00-12.30h	Sexuality, HIV and AIDS	74	Change agents are desperately needed to eradicate the AIDS-HIV pandemic and its causes. Misconceptions are all around us. How do churches confront learned stereotypes about male sexual privilege? Learn together to become wise interpreters of misinformation around patterns of sexual behavior and their ill effects on economic and political security. Interactive group discussion, role-plays and exercises will all be shared. Youth and young adults are strongly encouraged to participate.	Informal	50	313
15.févr.06	11.00-12.30h	Re-centering the Ecumenical Movement in Spirituality	125	In today's ecumenical world it is sometimes difficult to see how we can be together in prayer and spirituality. This workshop begins from the definition of spirituality as the conjunction of theology, prayer and practical Christian life and seeks to explore cultural and regional expressions of this. Participants will be asked to share their experiences and to consider together, afresh, the place of spirituality in the ecumenical movement.	Informal	50	302

The Peace to the City Network is a global coalition of churches, peace and justice organizations, faith communities and civil society movements in cities around the world, who are engaged in local initiatives to overcome violence.	Informal	50	313
15.févr.06	13.30-14.45h	Caste Discrimination: Counter Struggles towards Transformation	13	This workshop will engage in the discourse on what constitutes caste discrimination. It will explore the counter struggles and various forms of dissent against caste oppression on the local and global levels. It will also exhibit cultural action, which is a symbol of protest and dissent toward transforming politics, of Dalits.	Informal	50	905
15.févr.06	13.30-14.45h	Streams of Grace: Resourcing Churches to be Agents for Transformation in Overcoming Violence against women in Church and Society	1	This workshop will offer a range of approaches that churches can use in overcoming violence against women, including body theologies and new masculinities. It will also publicize "Streams of Grace," a new resource produced by the WCC, containing examples of good practice on overcoming violence against women from churches around the world.	Informal	50	304
15.févr.06	13.30-14.45h	Toward a New Form of Partnership in Development between the North and South	108	Sharing of resources has always been an integral part of the agenda of the modern ecumenical movement. During the past decades, the roles of and relations between 'partners' and 'donors' have changed in many respects. The workshop will discuss these trends with representatives of some of the stakeholders and explore ways forward. Reference will be made to the Proposed Ecumenical Alliance for Development.	Informal	50	314
15.févr.06	13.30-14.45h	Transforming the Nations: Becoming a Multicultural Church	110	This workshop will address the dynamics of transformation in a diverse setting. It will also discuss the barriers of race, gender and xenophobia, and will explore the two broad models of multicultural ministries from both a mission and justice approach.	Informal	50	302
15.févr.06	13.30-14.45h	Overcoming Violence in Families: Keys to a Constructive Way Forward	49	Violence in the family and gender-based violence are major threats to human safety. Nevertheless, the problems of violence committed in the so-called "private sphere" are neglected by media and politics, and are all too often kept secret. Even ten years after the Beijing Platform, violence against women is one of the most frequently committed human rights violations worldwide. The aim of this workshop is to disseminate concepts addressing violence in the family.	Informal	50	307
15.févr.06	13.30-14.45h	Palestinian Youth: Dreams of Peace and Justice	81	This workshop is about how Christian Palestinian youth are addressing their current situation in Palestine. 15.févr.06	17.00-18.30h	Addictions: Booze, Butts and Betting	6	Even as people of faith we are targets for multi-national industries that cause physical, spiritual, emotional and economic addictions. How do Christians respond? In a non-judgmental and safe environment we will share personal stories, using artistic expression, group exercises and respectful dialogue. This workshop will also consider asset-based public policies and community actions that equip us to stand up against addiction industries. Youth and young adults are strongly encouraged to participate.	Informal	40	Theater
15.févr.06	17.00-18.30h	New Approaches to Inter-Religious Education	30	This workshop will share the initial results of the cooperative project of Hartford Seminary and the WCC, reflecting together on effective approaches to interfaith education and drawing those interested in ecumenical education and formation, as well as members of interfaith networks, into a larger conversation about education. Participants in this workshop will be invited to relate their own efforts in interfaith education and reflect together on resources that will enhance their work. The workshop will be interactive and participatory.	Informal	50	303
15.févr.06	17.00-18.30h	Religious Health Assets: The Key Role of Religious Values and Organizations in Fostering Health in all its Dimensions	57	The capacity of people to be or to stay healthy, especially where there are severe environmental deficits and a limited supply of external resources (such as state finances and agencies), is linked to the resources or "assets" that they might leverage out of their own capabilities and interrelationships. The role of religion as an "asset" assumes that religion is a vital factor in the attitudes, behavior and activity of ordinary people. The emphasis on "assets" points to what people already do that can be built upon and better leveraged. To regard religious institutions as "assets" points to their crucial role of promoting health in all of its dimensions.	Informal	50	302

Many small farmers around the world, particularly in developing countries, are losing their livelihoods due to corporate agriculture which is also a source of environmental destruction and bad health for many people. This needs to be changed. Depriving farmers of their power to control seeds is one of the root causes of hunger in the world. Now some farmers are resisting this type of death-giving agriculture and are advocating for a Life-Giving Agriculture movement around the world.

This workshop focuses on raising awareness and education about the issues facing indigenous people concerning poverty with a particular focus on indigenous Australian poverty as a case study.

Around 450 million people worldwide are affected by mental, neurological or behavioral problems at any given time. Churches can have a huge role to play in preventing and ameliorating such problems. Examples of support systems for young people, for marginalized and dispossessed populations will be reviewed and case studies from Nicaragua, Zimbabwe and India will lead the discussions.

This workshop will address Christians and Muslims and their common victimization and resistance to global domination. This workshop seeks to offer a way of understanding how the Christian-Muslim divide has been created and used throughout history to serve imperial ambitions. It will also challenge churches to go beyond the current framework of interfaith dialogue and engage in solidarity with Muslims in the present context of the U.S.'s strengthened drive for empire.

Este taller ofrecerá una mirada panorámica del Pentecostalismo en el mundo, con atención a las especificidades regionales a la luz del centenario del avivamiento de la calle Azusa, Los Angeles, California.

This workshop will explore power relations between women and men informed by theological reflection and by a commitment to justice and equality between the genders.

Churches with their wide ranging networks and significant theological and human resources have the potential to make a greater contribution to the movement for trade justice. What campaigning tools and skills are appropriate and effective?

Este taller abordará el rol y los desafíos de las iglesias frente a las migraciones, la "expulsión" de los jóvenes y la construcción de una pastoral de las migraciones. Participarán miembros de la Red Ecueménica de refugiados, migrantes y desplazados de América Latina.

Este taller va a reflexionar sobre los esfuerzos por unir todos los aspectos de la tarea de la iglesia que son inseparables en la misión de Dios en el mundo de hoy. Incluirá reflexiones de América Latina, Europa y Norteamérica

Todas as pessoas, com ou sem deficiência, têm compromisso com ações transformadoras na sociedade. As pessoas com deficiência também possuem um papel decisivo nestas transformações.
